MASCULIST MGTOWS DON’T HAVE TO BE NICE TO WOMEN, WOMENS “MASCULIST SHOCK”

This flyer claims that those masculists who are also MGTOWs, i.e. they don’t date, don’t have a woman in their lives, are free to be a lot more misogynist than nearly most men, since most men are forced to be nice to women, if they want to get any sex from women, since, until the sexbots are really with us, it is these women who have monopoly control over access to their vaginas.

This much greater level of misogyny that can be expressed by masculist MGTOWs will profoundly shock women, who up until now, have been accustomed, deeply accustomed, to the idea that men have to nice to women, simply because they are women.
Most women, by the time they are in their 20s, have become very conscious that they possess something that men really, REALLY want, i.e. access to their vaginas. Men are powerfully motivated to want to penis women. Such a trait did not only evolve in males, but throughout the male biological kingdom, from the simplest life forms upwards. The urge to reproduce is obviously the most important inherited trait. If one does not reproduce, then all other traits become irrelevant.

Women and men are two different species. Most men find women alien, which is why the masculists use the term “femalien” to express this commonly held attitude of men towards women. Women have severe negative characteristics, that men dislike, e.g. women’s irrationality, emotionality, hysterics, nagging, etc.

Everyone has heard of the expression coming from men that “You cant live with them, and you cant live without them!” meaning that women are a pain in the arse, and yet, men are forced to put up with them, because men want the sex, men want access to their vaginas, that women have monopoly control over.

So, most men have learned that if they want to get what they really want, they have to more or less pretend to like women, even though at a deeper level, most men see women as femaliens, with their 10% smaller brains, their 10% lower IQ variance, their much lower testosterone levels, their much lower performance record, their negligible contribution to world culture, their inferior intellects, their awful nagging, etc.
Now that men have given women the male invented contraceptive pill, women choose to have 0, 1, or 2 kids, mostly, and as a result have poured into the work force, bringing their female traits with them, causing billions of men to feel real frustrations with female work colleagues, to such a point, there is now a mass movement by men to segregate the workplace, by literally moving their desks away from women, to escape the eternal femalien chitchat, the female backstabbing, the cattiness, the femalien prattle that so bores most men.

Men tend to prefer to work with other men and only men, because men are so much easier to work with, because other men are men, i.e. they have male brains, wired up in the male way, with male brain architectures, male ways of thinking and valuing things.

Women, on the other hand, are more foreign, more alien, than Asians are to Westerners, or vice versa. Women evolved with very different purposes than men did. Women evolved to want to have babies and to raise them, and to do that they evolved skills to manipulate men, to sexploit men, so that men could be persuaded to give women, and their babies, male resources, especially male hunted meat, that women could not get themselves, due to them being constantly pregnant or coping with infants from a recent pregnancy, so were not free to run far from the home, chasing game.

Women learned millions of years ago, before they were even fully human, that sex was a powerful tool to manipulate men to get men to do what women wanted, i.e. to provide women with resources. Women evolved to be prostitutes to men, in order to become better sexploiters of men, to extract resources from men to increase the odds of women and their babies surviving, especially in times of starvation.

So women became manipulative, sexually manipulative. “You man, give me some of your meat, and I, woman, will give you some of my cunt!”

Women’s manipulative nature with men, is frustrating for men to have to deal with, especially in the work place, so creates a lot of stress for men, that men don’t get from other men.

For example, this phenomenon occurs with me, close to home, namely with my sister, and her husband. I’ve learned from experience, that if I have some kind of problem with tech stuff, that I know can be answered by either of them, since they have lived their lives in Australia, whereas I’ve only recently moved here (after having lived half a century outside Oz, where I grew up.) When this situation arises, and I call them for an answer, I prefer to ask my sister’s husband than my sister, because I know he will give me a clear and direct answer to my question, whereas I’m much more likely to get some kind of moralistic lecture or comment from my sister, and that pisses me off and raises my impatience.

It is the wish on the part of men, to not have to cope with femalien moralizing, that millions of men are now segregating themselves in the work place, to escape femalien bother, the extra stress that women generate, that they don’t get from other men.

So, men on the whole see women as femaliens, as foreign, as a pain in the arse to be with, if it weren’t for the prospect of getting some sex from them, which clouds their judgement, and motivates them strongly to be nice to women, otherwise there is zero chance a woman is going to let him put his erect penis into her.

BUT, if a man is a masculist, who is also a MGTOW (men going their own way) then he is NOT driven to be nice to women, in order to get sex. He is therefore in a position to be a lot more emotionally honest about expressing his true feelings towards women’s alienness.

If women were all to suddenly sew up their vaginas, then very quickly, men would ignore women, not bothering with them, not respecting them, for all the reasons mentioned above. Women would quickly find themselves in a manless desert.

When the sexbots and the artwombs come, this will happen to women. They will be ignored by men, because the bots will sex men better than women can, because they will have film star faces, luscious curvy bodies, creamy grippy vaginas, etc, that women cannot compete with. In Oz, 40% of women are OBSESE, and hence sexually repulsive to men, utterly “cock shrinking” to men.
But, men don’t have to wait for the sexbots and artwombs to come, to ignore women. Third wave feminism, i.e. gynocentric, women empowering at the expense of men power politics, have made women arrogant, and unnurturing towards men, so men find such women less and less attractive.

With the fluffie feminist hypocrite takeover of the divorce courts, many millions of young men now refuse to marry, reject paternity, and spend their money on themselves, i.e. they have gone MGTOW (men going their own way), an important branch of the men’s lib movement.

Some of these MGTOWs, e.g. like myself, are also masculists, i.e. they take an angry, political, activist approach to men’s lib, unlike the wimpy, passive, apolitical approach of the MGTOWs, who simply quietly, passively, walk away from the marriage market and paternity.

If a man is both MGTOW and a masculist, then he has the opportunity to express publicly his true male feelings about women, and when he does so, this expression truly shocks women, because they are not accustomed to being intellectually and ideologically harangued by angry, gender politically articulate, masculists.

I’m learning this from my own experience. I’ve pretty well given up the hope of finding a female masculist who is sympathetic to men’s gender issues, since masculism is almost totally unknown to them. They have never heard of the concept, and hence are usually deeply monoconscious, i.e. have only had their feminist consciousness raised, and are blind to the ways in which women oppress men, e.g. with women’s financial parasitism, female manslavery, the fluffie feminist hypocrisy in the divorce courts, the red pill nature of women (i.e. not loving men, but loving men’s sexploitability), women’s hypergamy, women’s nagging, etc.

This mono-consciousness causes women to be gender biased, anger biased, seeing men as oppressors, and being unaware that women oppress men far worse than vice versa, since female oppression of men is sustained, over decades, manslaving men into a role than masculist MGTOWs have escaped from, liberated themselves from.

The more politically minded, and smarter, articulate, masculists who are MGTOWs in practice, are very conscious that the fluffie feminazis are genociders, indirectly wiping out whole populations, since they have taken over the divorce courts and are destroying the lives of one father in four, thus making marriage and fatherhood such a shitty deal for men, that young men are now rejected both in alarming numbers.

In many countries now, two thirds of young men under 35 reject marriage and paternity. If things continue as they are now, then probably within a decade, that fraction will be over 90%, so that within a mere generation, the population will have been reduced to a tenth of its current size. Hence politically minded masculists see the feminazis as genociders, who must be attacked, killed if necessary, in a sex war, so that the gender laws are made menfair, so that men can be persuaded to become fathers again. Many men would love to have kids and influence how they grow up, but don’t dare to because of the hated feminazi bitches, who are destroying the lives of one father in four.

Hence there is a real need, a political, population preserving need, for men, for masculist MGTOWs, to destroy the feminazis. In the limit, bullets will be used, in a sex war, that assassinates the gender politicians, who made these deeply misandrist gender laws in the first place (e.g. in the divorce courts, no Parer (paternity rejection right) etc.), that murders 1000s of feminazi divorce court lawyers and judges, that goes into the streets and simply shoots these feminazi vermin, who are killing off whole populations.

Probably, such shooting wont be necessary, since there are other, less drastic, ways to destroy the feminazis. One is to use verbally violent, deeply misogynist diatribes coming from the masculist MGTOWs, who lash out with real venom, against the genocidal policies and attitudes of the hated feminazi bitches.

The masculist MGTOWs, i.e. those MGTOWs who are also masculists, are in a much stronger position to do this haranguing, expressing their hatred of the genocidal policies of these feminazis, causing the whole culture to learn to hate them too. The feminazis obviously have to be stopped, or we wipe ourselves out. This simple lesson, has to be learned by the culture, so it is essential that the masculist message gets out into the general public, via the broadcast media.

If the masculists doing this are also MGTOWs, they will not be held back by the constraint of having to be nice to women, in performing this haranguing role.

Those masculists who are NOT MGTOWs, will pay a price, i.e. that mono conscious women will reject them, and not give them access to their vaginas, which is why the breakthroughs with the broadcast media will probably come from the masculists who ARE MGTOWs, who will not be afraid to kick up a media shitstorm against the fluffie feminist hypocrites, the feminazi bitches, in the media, not caring whether women would reject them if these men approached them sexually, since they are womanless by choice, or in practice.

When many of these masculist MGTOWs get on the media and let fly with their masculist misogynist venom, then millions of women are going to be shocked. I’m starting to get a taste of this now, with the women I give my “masculist test” to on e-dating sites, when I try to assess whether they are female masculists or not, i.e. sympathetic to men’s issues as well as women’s issues. In practice, I’m finding that virtually all women feel a visceral rejection of masculist ideas, probably because at a very deep, evolved level, women know that they are dependent on men for their very survival, and hence feel deeply, existentially threatened by masculist MGTOW abandonment of women, and by masculist verbal, ideological, intellectual attacks on women.
As more and more masculist MGTOWs attack women in the media, tens of millions of western women, I predict, will go through a lot of pain, when they are rejected by tens of millions of men, as these women fail to adapt to the growing masculist anger and hatred of men towards the hated feminazis and fluffie feminist hypocrites,

Women will go into deep shock, as they realize that nearly all the quality men they meet, in about a decade from now, have been infected by the masculist virus, and hence do not tolerate feminazi genocide, and expect, masculist style, that women are to grow up, to be responsible adults, to be FIPs (financially independent persons) and not expect to be treated as princess snowflakes.

The coming decade is the decade of men, men’s lib, freedom from manslavery for men, the destruction, and possible annihilation of the feminazis, if whole populations are not to be wiped out.

There is a lot at stake here. Women have to change. They will be forced to by men, since men have the financial power to force women to grow up, to FIP up, to become adults, pulling their own financial weight, to stop dumping on men with their feminazi monoconscious gender and anger bias, to have their masculist consciousness raised, so that they become biconscious, and lose their feminazi bitchiness, so that men will not reject them, as millions of MGTOW masculists are now doing to women.
