

MASCULIST PENETRATION OF THE BROADCAST MEDIA VIA MAJOR FEMINIST EVENTS

This flyer proposes a strategy for masculists to penetrate the broadcast media, in order to teach the masses, the public, about masculist and MGTOW ideas.

In about two months from the time of writing this flyer (early Feb. 2019) I will attend a public event in Melbourne, Australia, at its exhibition center, which will consist of two prominent American feminist intellectuals, who have written books on the desired (in their opinions) directions of feminism.

The two feminists concerned are Roxane Gay, and Christina Hoff Sommers. Roxane Gay is a black, obese, culture critic and feminist, who wrote the book “Bad Feminist” (a NY Times bestseller), which (to paraphrase a review on amazon.com) is “a call to arms on how society needs to improve,” especially with respect to modern feminism, which she thinks is too preoccupied with white, middle class, feminism, ignoring the feminisms of other female groups, e.g. blacks, gays, trans, etc. Christina Hoff Sommer, known in the internet as the “Factual Feminist,” is so much less of an isscienate fairy than most feminists who don’t care about scientific truths. She is complaining bitterly that modern feminism has become too misandrist, equating feminism with man hating, which is discrediting feminism for most women.

These two will be intellectually duking it out in a public debate, that the public pay money for to get a seat to listen.

When I came across an ad for this event, I had an idea. I assume there will be a Q & A (question and answer) session, after the two of them have debated. I bought a ticket, and I hope to use the opportunity to say something really pithy and striking that will attract the attention of the broadcast media journalists there who will ask themselves “Who was that masculist who made such striking points. Lets go talk to him. What he said sounded so important and needs to be given to our media publics!”

I will have perhaps 30-60 seconds to make my point, and hope to attract the journalists, so as to launch masculist consciousness and thinking in Melbourne, then Australia, and then to the western world.

I’m wondering what to say if I get to state my question. I’ll probably say something like this, and it has to be short and very pithy, to attract enough interest.

“Are either of you, or feminist intellectuals in general, conscious that a sex war is brewing amongst men? You’ve probably heard how toxic the feminists have made divorce, having taken over the divorce courts, ripping a divorcing father’s kids from him with a 90% probability, losing his house to his fluffie ex wife (a fluffie is a traditional woman who expects to be able to parasite off the money of a man), he’ll be made to give half of his wealth to her, forced to pay alimony to her with no legal or moral obligation on her to FIP up (i.e. become FIP = financially independent person) so that she can continue to parasite off him after the divorce, as she did before the divorce.

Divorce is now so toxic for men, that marriage is toxic for men, so in many western countries now, 2/3 of young men under 35 refuse to marry, reject paternity (the huge issue) and spend their money on themselves.

No culture that financially crucifies and destroys the lives of a quarter of its fathers, can survive intact. There will be an explosion. Men will snap, pick up arms, and go on a sex war. Responsible males, masculist soldiers, will not tolerate that the feminazis indirectly wipe out whole populations, which is what they are currently doing. Gender politicians will be assassinated. 1000s of feminazi divorce court lawyers and judges will be murdered, and if the sex war becomes major, masculist soldiers will go out into the streets and simply shoot the feminazi vermin.

Young women need to vote with men, to menfair the gender laws, e.g. reform divorce, push for the legislation of the Parer (paternity rejection right) so that men can be persuaded to become fathers again, otherwise, the feminazis will be seen as genociders, who need to be wiped out.

Please comment!”

After that little speel, I hope that the two of them will be shocked, although probably Sommers will be more open minded towards these masculist ideas, since her attitude is more science based. She is an academic, who thinks like a scientist, who bothers to look at the evidence, whereas Gay is more of an out and out misandrist, making offhand negative comments about men, in public. If she makes such a misandrist comment in public at this meeting in March, I will harangue her with something like “If you feel the right as a feminist to piss on men, then I as a masculist will shit on women, as the inferior sex, who are dumber than men by 4 IQ points on average, who have 10% smaller brains, so it is men who build and create cultures, and it is women who parasite on them. We men only tolerate women because of their two traditional monopolies of vagina and womb. But now that the sexbots are starting to come out, men will prefer to sex their bots which will have film star faces, luscious curves, creamy grippy vaginas. In Oz and the US, 40% of women are obese, and hence sexually repulsive to men. FUFs like yourself (i.e. fat un fuckables) are rejected by most men. Only the ugliest men would be willing to fuck you, because they are so desperate they will fuck anything, even you. So there, get a taste of your own medicine, you fat, unfuckable, misandrist, male dumping, feminazi bitch! You should be teaching to young women, that if a woman is not nice to a man, SHE WONT GET ONE!”

I’m hoping I will get the chance to air my masculist talents, and catch the attention of the journalists present, who will certainly be at this event, because it is the major feminist event of the year in Sydney and Melbourne.

If some journalists do come up to me, I can then give them the link to my YouTube/BitChute masculist flyers, and to my book on masculism, so that they can learn what masculism is, and then hopefully write about it in their newspapers, or invite me to talk on their TV programs etc.

By this means, I hope to launch masculist thinking in Oz, to get the media ball rolling on the other half of the gender story, i.e. men’s story.

Women oppress men worse than men oppress women, because women’s oppression is decades long, sustained, and major, e.g. female financial parasitism, female manslavery, the fluffie feminist hypocrisy in the divorce courts, where women want equal rights with men in the parliaments, but behave as fluffie parasites in the divorce courts, a major hypocrisy.

Now that men have got into gender politics, e.g. via the 3 major branches of the men’s lib movement, i.e. the MRM (men’s rights movement, who push for equal rights for men, via changes in the law), the MGTOW (men going their own way, who avoid marriage and reject paternity, spending their money on themselves) and the masculists (angry, political active, men's libbers), men will dominate gender politics.

This may sound crazy in today's feminist dominated gender political scene, but whenever men turn their minds to something, they always dominate it, because men are smarter than women,, the geni are males, and men have much higher testosterone levels in their blood, so are much more aggressive, ambitious, dogged and persistent at difficult tasks, much more than women, so the male performance record is greatly superior to women's.

Given this male gender political superiority, it is only a question of time before the journalists latch on to the biggest story of the century, i.e. the feminazi indirect genocide of whole populations, due to their takeover of the divorce courts, making them toxic for men, causing 2/3 of young men to reject paternity, so these feminazi bitches have to be stopped. That is the message I hope to convey to the journalists present at this feminist event.

Of course, I will inform you about how it went after the event, but for the moment, to those budding masculist leaders reading this, consider using the same strategy in your country. Choose an event, probably a feminist event, that is major enough, to attract the journalists and media people who are interested in gender issues, so that you will have the opportunity to state your masculist case in public, within earshot of the journalists, so that if you are effective, i.e. articulate, passionate, and charismatic, then you might attract their attention, giving you a platform to spread masculist ideas to the general public, which is desperately needed.

If society does not go masculist in the coming years, there will be a sex war, and large numbers of feminazis will be killed. It is in women's self interest to vote with men to menfair the gender laws, otherwise men will explode and treat women as sadistic, amoral children, who don't care about men's welfare.

If men collectively get angry at women, then god help women. The ultimate back up of the law is male force, but when the male law enforcers themselves become angry masculists, the feminazis are fucked, they will lose. Women are powerless towards men physically, and will be forced to do what men want. If women want to avoid this scenario, then they need to be informed of masculist ideas, and vote with men to menfair the gender laws (i.e. divorce reform, bring in the Parer, etc).
