

MASCULISM WILL HIT WOMEN LIKE A BUS

I've written nearly 350 of these masculist MGTOW flyers, with each flyer expressing some incremental idea relative to the previous flyers. Since there are some 350 of them, obviously, there have been many ideas, so that since they are contained in one head, I feel empowered to harangue an obnoxious feminazi witch if I choose to. This empowerment, when multiplied by 100s of millions, as masculist and MGTOW ideas spread throughout the western world to other men, will cause women to feel that they have been hit by a bus, such will be the onslaught against them coming from the masculists.

This flyer lists how masculists, 100s of millions of them, all empowered with masculist ideas, masculist viewpoints, and ideology, will hit women so hard, that these women will feel they have been hit by a bus, crushing them, destroying them.

Before I launch into a list of ways that women will feel they have been bit by a masculist bus, I need to explain why third wave feminism (as distinct from second wave feminism, which masculists support and promote, since equal legal rights for women is a prerequisite for men to liberate themselves from manslavery by fluffie parasites, by making it easier for women to FIP up) needs to be destroyed.

Third wave feminism, i.e. a variant of feminism that emphasizes the empowerment of women, at men's expense, i.e. power gained by women is power lost by men, has become indirectly genocidal, so has to be wiped out.

One way to do this, which is an option that remains open, is simply to shoot third wave feminists in a sex war, but the more benign method, which will of course be tried first by the masculists, is to destroy belief in third wave feminism by destroying the credibility of its core beliefs.

How have these feminists become genociders? Because they have taken over the divorce courts, and made them so toxic for men, and hence have made marriage such a shitty deal for men, that in many western countries now, two thirds, and probably within a decade, if the gender laws are not menfaired, then over 90% of young men, under 35, will be refusing to marry, rejecting paternity (the huge issue) and spending their money on themselves. Thus these feminazis, so hated by the masculists, are indirectly wiping out whole populations, so obviously have to be stopped.

Plan A of the masculists to do this, is to give men masculist intellectual tools, masculist ideas, to arm them on an assault against third wave feminism, that is so powerful, so formidable, that it does not survive.

The most formidable enemy of the third wave feminists are the masculist scientists, who are out to destroy the intellectual foundations of the core ideas of the feminists by showing that these ideas are incoherent, which fail to stand up to scientific scrutiny, so that once most men, and nearly all educated, intelligent men are familiar with this masculist critique, will be able to use these critiques to smash feminazi bitchery whenever and wherever they come across it, until third wave feminism dies out, due to too few women believing in it any more, or who are too afraid to state publicly that they are third wave feminists, due to the power of the negative reaction their statement would bring, especially from potential husbands that they hope to manslave and parasite on so that they can have babies.

This flyer now lists a handful of the major ways in which women will feel they have been bit by a bus in terms of the level of vitriol coming from the masculists, 100s of millions of them, from nearly all the young men they come across in their young lives, etc.

As usual, I'll give a bulleted list first and will elaborate on them later. Here is a handful of such ways.

1. Women's self-pride will be crushed by masculist science.

2. Fluffies will be ostracized by society, causing massive pain to them.
3. Young female high schoolers will come under enormous moral pressure to FIP up or be ignored and shunned by their male classmates who will be masculists.
4. Monoconscious feminists will be violently verbally attacked by masculists for being indirect genociders, and seen as bigots.
5. The strength of the masculist backlash against women will feel like a tsunami, a massive tidal wave that washes over them, drowning them, silencing them, so that they are forced to grow up, to FIP up, to become moral, instead of the childminded hypocritical ignorami that they are today.

There are many more points I could add with further thought, but 5 points is a good start.

Now for the elaborations.

1. Women's self-pride will be crushed by masculist science.

I notice when I read feminist literature, that there is an overwhelming need for women to feel that they are “the equals of men, that anything a man can do a woman can also do.” It is only recently, over the past half century, that large numbers of women have entered the work force. Women did not evolve to understand and manipulate the world, the way men did, because women did not evolve to hunt.

Women evolved to manipulate men, to sexexploit men. Women even evolved to be prostitutes to men, to be better able to persuade men to give women and their babies scarce male hunted meat, especially in times of starvation when death was just one missed meal away.

Thanks to the male inventions of the contraceptive pill, household gadgets, higher education, modern male medicine, long life expectancies, women who have their 2 kids, still have a career window of half a century, so have moved into the work force, into a role they were not evolved for, so are at a disadvantage relative to men, who were evolved to understand and manipulate the world.

Men become exasperated and frustrated at the shortcomings of women in the work place and express these feelings, resulting in women being on the defensive, desperately desiring to prove to men that women are men’s equals in the work place, capable of performing at male levels, and constantly failing to do so, so that there is a lingering doubt in women’s minds, that maybe they are not men’s equals. Women look around them and see most of the major achievements in modern life are male achievements, and so feel inferior.

Feminism then comes along which preaches (rather than teaches) to women that women are men's equals, and get offended when men scoff at such claims.

Masculist scientists, who are out to destroy third wave feminism, for the reasons given above, have no patience with this feminazi anti scientific nonsense and destroy it mercilessly, haranguing these feminazis, dismissing them as isscient fairies (isscient = unable to think scientifically, due to ignorance of science; fairies = living in a fairyland, believing what they want to believe, without evidence, making them no better than religionists, or flat earthers, or creationists.)

Masculist scientists ram home to these third wave feminists that women are dumber than men by 4 IQ points on average, have a 10% lower IQ variance, have 10% smaller brains (the most damning fact about women), have much lower testosterone levels than men, so are much less aggressive, less ambitious, less dogged, less persistent, so give up more easily with difficult tasks, so it is men who have won 99% of the science Nobel prizes, and dominate the entries in the Who's Who books.

Masculist scientists also point out the irrationality of another core idea of the feminists, namely that the patriarchy needs to be destroyed. By patriarchy, these feminists are talking about the general male dominance of men in positions of power, of influence, of ideas, of respect, of achievement etc, and want to bring it down, by increasing the level of women's power.

The feminists have managed to do this in a domain that is very important to them, i.e. in the divorce courts, where they dominate, bringing their female standards to divorce court decisions, which has created so much chaos that the injustice inflicted on men in the divorce courts will eventually be the main cause of feminism's downfall.

The masculist scientists point out that the patriarchy is largely caused by women, due to women's hypergamy, i.e. the female instinct to mate up, to get the superior DNA of a superior male for her kids, so that her kids have DNA superior to hers, which is good for the species, so was inherited. A classic example of women's hypergamy, is the idea that a female doctor will not date a male plumber, because his genes are not good enough for her kids, so she tries to date her equal or better, her superior, e.g. a surgeon, or an affluent medical specialist.

The masculist scientists tell women that hypergamy is largely caused by women, that it is genetically based, and will not go away, since women have been sexually selecting men, with women's monopoly on which man gets to ejaculate in her, and her sexual selection for men who were taller, bigger, stronger, fiercer, and smarter than her, for over a million years, so of course, just as pea hens have been sexually selecting pen cocks with large feather displays, men today are taller, bigger, stronger, fiercer and smarter than women, because women, with their monopoly control of reproduction, wanted things that way. Taller, bigger, stronger, fiercer men would be more likely to be able to defend her against other such males, and smarter men made better hunters, who brought home the meat with greater frequency, so that she and her babies could survive, given that she could not hunt, i.e. running around for days on end after game, far from the family cave, because she had to stay at home with her babies and toddlers. Women have always been parasites on men.

Masculist scientists also tell women that the other major factor causing the patriarchy is the genetic phenomenon of GMV (greater male variance) i.e. men have only one X chromosome in their cells, which is one of the largest, and the Y male chromosome is one of the smallest, so that a greater variety of genes get expressed in men than women, who have 2 X chromosomes, so that only the dominant genes on the female chromosomes get expressed, suppressing the much larger number of recessive genes.

Men thus have a greater variance on anything measurable, e.g. in IQ, i.e. 10% greater, so it is to be expected that men have won 99% of the science Nobel prizes. Speaking more generally, women invent almost nothing, build almost nothing, create almost nothing. Men have only tolerated women for their two traditional monopolies, of vagina and womb, but male engineering genius will soon supersede these two monopolies with their creation of sexbots and art(ificial)wombs, so that soon men will prefer to sex their bots and grow their own kids, forcing women into deep depression, as most men reject and ignore them.

Thus two of the core ideas of the feminists, i.e. 1) the equal ability of the two sexes and 2) that the patriarchy should be destroyed, are demolished by masculist scientists. When these feminists object to such masculist refutations, their isscienate ignorance will only cause the masculist scientists to become all the more hostile towards them, haranguing these ignorant feminazis with greater venom and contempt. The ideological onslaught coming from masculist scientists will feel like being hit by a bus, for these isscienate feminazis.

As result of this, women's self-pride will be crushed. Women will be forced to accept their inferior status, and their inferior contribution to society, due to the force of the masculist scientist critique. Women, like blacks, will be forced, by science, to accept their inferior intelligence, their greatly inferior contribution to society, due to their genetic inferiority. This will be deeply wounding to women, just as it is to blacks, whom scientists say are the dumbest people in the world. There are a billion black Africans who have an average IQ of only 70.

Women's inferiority relative to men, is much less than that, but still inferior enough, so that, in all cultures, boy babies are more valued than girl babies, because all cultures know from long experience, that boy babies are much more likely to grow up to be highly valued members of the culture, whereas girl babies will grow up to be mere baby factories and child minders, which is vital, but not status worthy, since all women can do those two things.

Thus the rise of masculist science will cause the crushing of women's egos, humbling them, making them less arrogant, less entitled, accepting their inferior status, justified by the evidence presented by masculist scientists, who will force women to eat humble pie.

2. Fluffies will be ostracized by society, causing massive pain to them.

Masculists see fluffies as vermin, to be wiped out, spat at, due to their parasitic nature. Men have given women the contraceptive pill, and modern medicine, so that women live well into their 80s, so have a career window of half a century, so even if they have their 2 kids, they have a powerful moral obligation, imposed on them by the masculists, to FIP up, to grow up, to get a career competent education at high school and college, so that they do not become fluffie parasites as adults, expecting to be able to parasite off the money of a man in her 30s when her biological clock is ticking and goes looking around for some gullible man slave to parasite upon, to pay for her to sit on her fat parasitic arse and raise HER kids in a house that HE pays for.

Masculists see fluffies as immoral, parasitic, manslaving, vermin, to be wiped out. Masculists make a close analogy between the negro slavery of the 19th century in the US and man slavery in the 21st century. Fluffies are spat at by the masculists, forced to rot on the shelf to extinction, not even pumped and dumped, seen as vermin, to be ignored to death, whose fluffie genes are to be removed from the gene pool.

Life for fluffies will become intolerable when 100s of millions of men become infected by the masculist virus, hurling abuse and verbally violent criticism against them, utterly rejecting them for the fluffie manslaving vermin that they are. I would definitely not want to be a fluffie in the coming decades once nearly all educated men have become masculists.

3. Young female high schoolers will come under enormous moral pressure to FIP up or be ignored and shunned by their male classmates who will be masculists.

As part of the general contempt expressed by masculists against fluffies, will be the enormous moral pressure exerted on young “fluffie crappers” at age 16 in high schools, when these young women choose to study the soft option, the intellectually lazy, intellectually easy, memory based, non-analytical, majors such as English literature, history, languages, rather than the analytical majors such as math and the sciences.

These young fluffie crappers, studying fluffie crap, will then come under enormous moral pressure from their male classmates, who will despise them for choosing to become fluffies as adults, i.e. choosing not to grow up, expecting to be able to parasite off the money of a man, i.e. expecting to be able to manslave some gullible manslavable man who is too stupid and ignorant not to have had his masculist consciousness raised, so falls into the trap of a sexexploitative fluffie crapper who aims to live off his money, his labor. She wants to leech him.

The masculists are very conscious that most of the fluffie crapper damage is done in the high schools, where, in today's world, some $\frac{3}{4}$ of young women choose to become fluffies, by choosing to study fluffie crap majors, making them fluffie parasites as adults, expecting to get their financial claws into some manslave in her 30s.

Instead, she will find that the supply of such gullible manslavable men has dried up, due to the effectiveness of masculist and MGTOW publicity in the internet and the media, as journalists realize that the fluffie feminist hypocrisy of the divorce courts is indirectly wiping out whole populations, causing a mass rejection of young men against marriage and paternity, so that the journalists spread the masculist message to the masses, which in turn causes young men to be conscious that it is NOT in their self interest to get interested in a hated, parasitic, bloody fluffie.

Young men will spit at such young women, rejecting them both socially and sexually, avoiding them like the plague, to be totally rejected and hounded out of their social circles. The moral and social pressure on fluffies at high school will be utterly crushing in the coming few decades as masculist ideas spread throughout the world.

4. Monoconscious feminists will be violently verbally attacked by masculists for being indirect genociders, and seen as bigots.

Once men are intellectually armed with masculist ideas, they will be in a position to hit back strongly, powerfully, against the feminazi bitches/witches who in their monoconscious ignorance, think that gender oppression is a one way street.

Masculists don't deny that men have oppressed women, but do deny that women don't oppress men. Masculists are painfully aware that due to their masculist consciousnesses being raised, and assuming they are also familiar with feminist ideas, they have a basis for comparison, so are able to conclude that women oppress men far more than vice versa, since women's oppression of men is so sustained, so deep, lasting decades, with women's financial parasitism, women's manslavery, women's fluffie feminist hypocrisy in the divorce courts, women's red pill nature (i.e. not loving men unconditionally, but rather loving men's sexploitability), women's hypergamy, etc.

Monoconscious feminists will be met with a vociferous, very angry, masculist backlash against them, and be accused of being monoconscious bigots, hypocrites, as hated genociders, due to the enormous damage they have done to men in the divorce courts, and that if they don't stop, they risk being shot by murderously hateful masculist soldiers, who will not tolerate that these monoconscious, feminazi bitches wipe out whole populations, which is what they are currently doing, due to their having made divorce so toxic for men, that men reject marriage and paternity at a current rate of 70% and probably within a decade, over 90%, which will wipe out whole cultures within a mere generation, so these monoconscious feminazi vermin have to be stopped, initially with masculist scientist arguments, designed to destroy credibility in the core feminist ideas, or if that fails, then with bullets, in a sex war. Third wave feminists, will become the prime targets, the most hated, the first to be killed.

5. The strength of the masculist backlash against women will feel like a tsunami, a massive tidal wave that washes over them, drowning them, silencing them, so that they are forced to grow up, to FIP up, to become moral, instead of the childminded hypocritical ignorami that they are today.

Try to imagine what it will be like to be a woman, in less than a decade, once most men have absorbed masculist ideas, who have been infected by the masculist virus, seeing fluffies as vermin, to be wiped out, seeing mono-conscious fluffie feminists in the divorce courts as the principal enemies, to be destroyed. The moral indignation coming from men, from masculinized men, will be enormous. It will feel like a bus has hit these women, as a tsunami comes thundering in from out of the blue, when suddenly, nearly every man they come across, seethes in anger, if she expresses fluffie values, if she hasn't bothered to FIP up, expecting that some gullible manslave will pay for her.

She will be spat at and rejected from all sides, by nearly all men. Quality men, the type of men she really wants to mate with, to get his superior DNA for her kids, will sneer at her, not giving her the time of day, telling her in no uncertain terms, that she is a fluffie parasite, a hatable manslaver, and deserves her fate of rotting on the shelf, rejected certainly by nearly all men, and increasingly by biconscious women, who agree with men that women have a moral duty to FIP up and become responsible adult FIPs.

In light of the above 5 points, and there are many more, I predict that within a decade, it will be very difficult for women to hold traditional fluffie views. Such women will come under tremendous moral pressure. The percentage of young women at high school who choose to study career competent majors will increase greatly, since the social, sexual and emotional cost of them NOT doing so, will have become enormous. Few young women in the future will dare to be a fluffie, because if she is stupid enough to be like that, she will pay a horrible price, she will be hit by a masculinist bus that will destroy her life.
